2nd Session - 1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Camp Description: During the three day camp, players will go through rigorous workouts pertaining to the offensive and defensive systems that McNeil Volleyball implements. Athletes will also get the repetitions necessary to review skills and come in prepared and ready for the upcoming season. The coaches that will be running the camp are familiar with the techniques that the McNeil program runs, but will also use other drills and methods to reach the players for their overall success.

***This camp does not ensure the player a spot on a team after tryouts, but will help prepare her to do her best during the tryout period.

What to Bring: Campers should wear volleyball shoes, socks, shorts, a T-shirt, and knee pads. Please bring your own water bottle. Volleyballs will be provided.

Camp Coaches: The camp is going to be lead by Rachael and Joe Sunder. Rachael and Joe are both assistant directors at Austin Skyline Juniors Volleyball. Rachael played collegiate volleyball as an outside hitter at UCLA. Rachael was also named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament after helping her team win the Division 1 National Championship in 2011. Joe played collegiate volleyball as a middle hitter at Penn State University. Joe is a two time NCAA Division 1 National Champion. After graduating from college both Rachael and Joe played professionally overseas.
